Reasons why you should protect your clubs' players and officials

Personal accident insurance is designed to provide compensation for players and officials following injury whilst playing, training and travelling to and from organised club activities.

Why should our club consider it?

Clubs can have a duty of care to ensure players are protected and unfortunately we are now beginning to see claims arising against them for failing to arrange adequate insurance protection for their players.

In addition to providing financial support to the injured person, the provision of this form of insurance can considerably help to ease the increasing litigation culture we are experiencing within the amateur game.

Why Bluefin?

Utilising our many years of experience in the football industry, Bluefin, incorporating SBJ Sports, have a unique awareness of the insurance risks faced by football associations and clubs.

We have a library of claims data specific to the industry. This enables us to formulate insurance policies which have been specifically designed to deal with the football risks.

What are the benefits?

We offer policies providing excellent levels of benefits starting at just £16 per youth mini soccer team and £19 for a youth 11 a side team. Visit www.bluefingroup.co.uk/footballpa for more information.

Operative time of the policy is whilst playing, training, travelling to and from plus organised club social events e.g. minibus going to watch a game at end of season.

The policies can provide a range of weekly payments and lump sum benefits for accidental death, permanent total disablement, loss of limbs, eyes, sight, hearing, dental, broken bones, hospitalisation and more.
